

Under the Sea

Far down in the deep blue sea,
If you go, you should go with me.
There is no sun, there are no stars,
There is no Venus,
And certainly no Mars!

There are lots of dolphins,
There are lots of fish.
There is lots of seaweed, and
Lots of wrecked ships.

You need a wet-suit,
You need flippers.
You need an oxygen tank,
And you can't go in your slippers!

So that is my poem,
About under - sea fun.
I'm sorry to say it,
But my poem is done!

By Katie and Niamh.