

Winter Poem

I love the cold winter.
It is chilly and beautiful.
I love the winter leaves,
Flying off tree by tree.

Lots of children, playing in the snow
With their furry woolly coats
With long, comfy scarves and
Relaxing calming ear-muffs.

The frozen paths and lakes,
Everywhere ice and snow.
The snowy woods and sleighs and skis
That you can slide up and down on.

Winter, I love winter!
