20th April 2017

Dear Parents and Carers,

Diary dates for the summer term

These are now available to view on our school website. Please note the school Inset days for the end of term and the new academic year.

Library – Official Opening – Non Uniform Day, 2nd May

The new school library is to be opened by James Mayhew, the Hertfordshire based artist and writer (www.jamesmayhew.co.uk), on Tuesday the 2nd of May. To mark this special occasion, we are holding a Non-Uniform Day when we are asking the children to come dressed as their favourite book character. There is no need to buy anything special for this. There are many ideas for ‘free’ outfits online: <https://www.mumsnet.com/books/world-book-day-costume-ideas>

Little Fields Pre-School – Closure for Elections

For parents with children attending Little Fields, please be aware that Little Fields will be closed for County Council Elections on Thursday the 4th of May and for Parliamentary Elections on Thursday the 8th of June.

New contact details

If you have changed your mobile numbers or other contact details over the Easter break, please notify the office as soon as possible. Thank you.

Non-Uniform Day – Red Nose Day – Friday 24st March

We raised over £370 on Red Nose Day. Thank you all for your donations.

Persistent Lateness

Unfortunately there are quite a number of children who are persistently late for school. This causes significant issues for the school office, as the very youngest children have to be accompanied to their classes and dinner orders have to be changed. It also causes disruption for the classes and the children often feel embarrassed by coming in late to the classroom. Please make every effort to ensure your child attends school on time. Thank you for your cooperation.

Nursery Admissions

Just a reminder to those parents with young children starting Nursery in September, please log on to the Hertsdirect website on the 25th April: www.hertsdirect.org/nurseryadmissions to accept any nursery offers made.

Old £5 note no longer legal tender from 5th May 2017

Please could you refrain from making any further payments for any school items/trips using the old £5 note. This will allow the school enough time to bank any old notes. Unfortunately we will have to return any old notes that we receive from you. Many thanks for your co-operation.

Attendance

Set out on the next page, is a list of children who are to be congratulated for having 100% attendance i.e. not having missed one half day of school, in the spring term. At the end of the year when you receive your child's report you will also receive their percentage attendance for the year. If your child's attendance dips below 95% it will start to affect their chances of doing well academically. We do, of course, understand unavoidable illness where you have to keep your child at home!

Yours sincerely,

Mr G. Gaidoni
